

The Baker Heart Research Institute is looking for volunteers for two separate research studies into the effects of depression and panic attacks on the heart. There will be investigations of psychological and biological aspects (including brain imaging). Participation involves free treatment with antidepressants in the depression study and Cognitive Behaviour based psychotherapy and/or antidepressants in the panic disorder study.

Both studies are confidential.

If you have no heart disease, diabetes or hypertension treated with medication you may be eligible.

Contact:

Ph: (03) 8532-1110

Email: celiab@bigpond.net.au

Website: Baker Research Institute